A WORD FROM THE C3A PRESIDENT

My name is Bill Shewmaker, and I was graduated from Central Christian College of the Bible in 1982. I am currently serving as the president of the Alumni Association (C3A). Central Christian College of the Bible is known for being true to the Word and for sending out Preachers/Teachers of that Word. We, as alumni, should be PROUD of representing the finest Bible college around.

We began to revitalize the alumni association a few years ago so that the alumni could be better informed about what is happening “back home in Moberly.” The C3A Advisory members are also asked to advise the President and administration on occasion. We want and need your input to help the College continue to honor Christ by training servants who are willing to go and teach others.

Whether it has been only a few days or several years since you were on campus, we want you to “come home” and see what is happening at YOUR school. Central needs her Alumni to keep praying for the college and sending students who are dedicated to the Kingdom of Christ. By praying and sending students, we can ensure that her influence around the world will continue as we all strive to “make disciples.”

One of the main projects that the C3A is responsible for is our annual “Alumni Homecoming.” All alumni are encouraged to come to Central’s campus for two days of preaching, workshops, food, meetings, music and, of course, fellowship! During our annual homecoming, we offer the chance to sit in classrooms with your “favorite” professors or to just walk the halls and remember your days at CCCB. This is also a time to meet with the faculty and staff of the school to receive updates, give advice and help plan Central’s future. The dates for our 2012 Homecoming are March 9 and 10. Bob Russell and Mr. Pelfrey will be speaking.

The C3A has many other activities as well. In the fall of 2008 we began the “Freshman Mugging.” Each incoming freshman received a C3A mug and some information concerning Central’s Alumni Association. Our hope is that by letting these new students know about our association when they first get to CCCB, they are much more likely to become participating members in the future. For the past three years we have offered “Finals’ Week Care Packages” to the parents to purchase for their student(s). On average, we put together 150 care packages for each Finals’ Week. This is a service the parents and students both appreciate.

We also make our presence known at the Missouri Christian Convention, the National Youth Roundup (NYR) in Colorado, the North American Christian Convention and the National Missionary Convention.

Obviously the C3A has many activities already, and we hope to be able to do much more as our numbers and funds grow. We have some projects in mind and are open to new ideas.

As our alumni base grows, the task of keeping track of each alumnus gets more difficult. There are at least four CCCB alumni groups on “Facebook.” Also, I will send out occasional emails about Central’s plans, needs, prayer requests, news, etc. To be included in those email reports just contact me at bshewmkr@netins.net.

Our goal is to take advantage of every avenue possible to put and keep CCCB alumni in touch with each other and their school. Of course, the best way to get and keep involved with Central and her alumni is to join our alumni association!
