COLLEGE OF THE BIBLE

PREACHING MINISTRY

Students who enter the Preaching Program will receive a blend of training from seasoned professionals and highly qualified academics. Students will learn from a variety of professors who have a combined 150+ years of ministry experience, many of whom have doctoral level educations. Preaching students will learn how to take a text from the study to the pulpit, how to develop a sermon series from any book of the Bible, and how to preach from any genre of Scripture. From counseling to curriculum writing, from weddings to funerals, students will have the tools they need to serve the Kingdom in eternity-impacting ways.

“Central has shown me that preaching is more than giving a speech. People are hurting and they have real needs that need to be addressed. As a preacher, it’s my job to listen to God and share his message with others.”
Lance Patrick

What makes for great preaching? Great preaching begins when the preacher lets the text of Scripture win in the sermon. Great preaching must also be clearly communicated, interesting, and relevant to the lives of our listeners. When Jesus preached he arrested the attention of his listeners, spoke clearly, taught biblically, and his teaching directly applied to the lives of his listeners. Likewise, we must train our students to be great preachers. There are many GOOD preachers out there, but we want to train GREAT preachers. However, successful ministries are not confined to a 30 minute sermon on Sunday morning, so our students learn the essentials of counseling, church growth, church administration, curriculum and lesson writing, and a series of other practical ministry issues they will encounter regularly in ministry.
